

I am asking that the FCC please withdraw its petition to allow the consumer bankers association to weaken the telephone privacy law. Consumers are continually harrassed and hounded by not only businesses which are soliciting new business, but also those which we have an established relationship with. I am asking that the FCC please withdraw this petition from the CBA. Thank you